DEAD NOW NUMBER 21

Wreck of the Big Four Claimed Many Victims—Believed Many are Under Wreckage

Middleton, O., July 5.—The body of an unidentified man was today taken from the debris of the wreck of the Big Four "Twentieth Century Limited" yesterday. This brought the list of dead up to 21. It is believed more victims are under the ruins.

AN EARLIER REPORT

Middleton, Ohio, July 4.—Nineteen persons were killed outright, three probably fatally hurt and a dozen seriously injured in a head-on collision between a freight and passenger train on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railway here today. Of the killed eighteen were passengers, the other victim being a member of the passenger crew. The trains were the Cincinnati section of the Twentieth Century limited on the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad (Big Four) and the second section of a freight train on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railway.

The latter was attempting to make a siding to give the passenger train a clear track when the flyer, traveling at the rate of fifty miles an hour, flashed around a curve and dashed into it. The Big Four train had been detoured to avoid a blocked track on that road at Genoa, a few miles south of here, caused by a freight wreck earlier in the day.
